About

Southern California Public Radio (SCPR) is a member-supported public radio network that operates 89.3 KPCC-FM in Los Angeles and Orange County, 89.1 KUOR-FM in the Inland Empire and 90.3 KPCV in the Coachella Valley. Reaching more than a 600,000 listeners every week, SCPR is the most listened to public radio news service of any kind in Southern California and serves the diverse communities of Southern California with award winning local news coverage as well as the most NPR (National Public Radio) content available anywhere in the region.

SCPR's flagship station, KPCC, has garnered over 200 journalistic honors including 3 Distinguished Radio Journalist awards (from the Greater LA Chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists) and the 2008 top honor for Breaking News from the LA Press Club. SCPR also features signature public radio programs from American Public Media, the BBC and Public Radio International. Listeners around the globe can access news, join blogs, download podcasts, as well as hear a live web stream at www.scpr.org.

		week on Off-Ramp
On the Media	Sunday 6:00-7:00 p.m.	The weekly, one-hour program is America's only national radio program devoted to media criticism and analysis.
* Patt Morrison	Monday-Friday 1:00-3:00 p.m.	Join Patt Morrison for in-depth explorations of local politics and culture, as well as coverage of national and world news.
The Play's The Thing (L.A. Theatre Works)	Saturday 10:00 p.m.-12:00 a.m.	L.A. Theatre Works produces the award-winning, critically-acclaimed radio theatre series, "The Play's The Thing." Listeners across the country are discovering radio drama that is contemporary, edgy, and significant.
A Prairie Home Companion®	Saturday 3:00-5:00 p.m. and 6:00-8:00 p.m. Sunday Noon-2:00 p.m.	A Prairie Home Companion is a live radio variety show created and hosted by Garrison Keillor and originating from the Fitzgerald Theater in St. Paul, Minnesota.
RadioLab	Sunday 9:00-10:00 p.m.	RadioLab believes your ears are a portal to another world. Where sound illuminates ideas, and the boundaries blur between science, philosophy, and human experience. Big questions are investigated, tinkered with, and encouraged to grow.
Speaking of Faith®	Sunday 4:00-5:00 p.m.	Speaking of Faith , hosted by Krista Tippett, is public radio's weekly conversation about religion, meaning, ethics, and ideas. Speaking of Faith does not always have "religion" itself as a subject. Week after week, it grapples with themes of American life -- asking how perspectives of faith might distinctively inform and illuminate our public reflection.
The Splendid Table®	Sunday 3:00-4:00 p.m.	The Splendid Table is a one-hour culinary, culture, and lifestyle program that celebrates food and its ability to touch the lives and feed the souls of everyone.
StarDate	Monday-Friday 10:04 p.m.	StarDate tells listeners what to look for in the night sky, and explains the science, history, and skylore behind these objects. It also keeps listeners up to date on the latest research findings and space missions.
The Story®	Monday-Thursday 8:00-9:00 p.m.	The Story is all about one thing: storytelling.
Talk of the Nation with Neal Conan	Monday-Thursday 9:00-11:00 p.m.	When Americans want to be a part of the national conversation, they turn to Talk of the Nation , NPR's midday news-talk show. Journalist Neal Conan leads a productive exchange of ideas and opinions on the issues that dominate the news landscape.
Science Friday with Ira Flatow	Friday 9:00-11:00 p.m.	Science Friday is a science talk show hosted by veteran NPR science correspondent Ira Flatow.
The Tavis Smiley Show	Friday 11:00 p.m.-1 a.m.	The Tavis Smiley Show is a high-energy exchange of views, information, and insight, hosted by Tavis Smiley. The two-hour weekly show offers a unique blend of news and newsmakers in expanded conversations, along with feature reports and regular commentators.
This American Life	Friday 8:00-9:00 p.m. Sunday 7:00-8:00 p.m.	This American Life is hosted by Ira Glass and is primarily a journalistic non-fiction program, although it has also featured essays, memoirs, field recordings, short fiction, and found footage. Each week's show loosely centers on a particular theme.
Wait, Wait... Don't Tell Me	Saturday 11:00 a.m.-Noon Sunday 11:00 a.m.-Noon	Wait Wait... Don't Tell Me! is NPR's weekly hour-long quiz program. Each week on the radio you can test your knowledge against some of the best and brightest in the news and entertainment world while figuring out what's real news and what's made up.
Weekend America®	Saturday 1:00-3:00 p.m.	Weekend America is a two-hour program service designed to fit the weekend state of mind. Bill Radke co-hosts the program each week from Los Angeles, inviting listeners to a lively conversation about the issues of the week, the arts, and public affairs.
Weekend Edition Saturday	Saturday 5:00-10:00 a.m.	From civil wars in Bosnia and El Salvador, to hospital rooms, police stations, and America's backyards, NPR's Peabody Award-winning correspondent Scott Simon brings a well-traveled perspective to his role as host of Weekend Edition Saturday .
Weekend Edition Sunday	Sunday 5:00-10:00 a.m.	Hosted by Liane Hansen, Weekend Edition Sunday covers newsmakers, artists, scientists, politicians, musicians, writers, thinkers, theologians, and all manner of news events.
Whad'Ya Know?	Saturday 8:00-10:00 p.m.	Whad'Ya Know? is a two-hour comedy/quiz/interview show that is dynamic, varied, and thoroughly entertaining. Host and quiz-master Michael Feldman invites contestants to answer questions drawn from his seemingly limitless store of insignificant (but also somehow, important) information.
The World	Monday-Friday 12:00-1:00 p.m.	PRI's The World is a one-hour weekday radio news magazine offering a mix of news, features, interviews, and music from around the globe.
The Writer's Almanac®	Monday-Friday 8:01 p.m.	The Writer's Almanac features Garrison Keillor recounting the highlights of this day in history and reading a short poem or two.

Combined with an Indian food store (formerly Bharat Bazaar), the owners have made every effort to make diners feel relaxed. A well-kept secret meeting place for spiritual intellectuals.

The three-course buffet is $10.99 or so and is not "endless," but includes roti bread, white or brown rice, raita (yogurt sauce), and your choice of generally consistently excellent vegetarian Indian dishes.
